A Report That the Preferred Due February Next Will Be Passed.

TENNESSEE IS SOLID FOR CLEVELAND.

Death of Rear-Admiral George H. Cooper. Less Money Being Taken in the South. New York News.

NEW YORK BUREAU, RIGHMOND TIMES, Nov. 17, 1891.

In Wall-street to-day reports were current that the dividend on Richmond Terminal preferred, due February 1st, will be passed. Directors of the company say that the reports are based simply on aguess, as no action has been taken in the matter, and none will be taken until the directors meet in December.

With one working day less than last year there is a decrease of $6,870 in the earnings of the Richmond and Danville for the first week in November.

Bank officers report that the South has taken much less money than usual at his time, and shipments to that quarter have practically ceased. An unusual feature is that the Southern interests borrowing money have paid off their loans and materially reduced their debts to institutions, which is almost unprecedented at this season of the wear. The West is taking very little—so little, in fact, as not to be a factor in the monetary situation, and the outlook is general for a long period of easy money. THE BOUTH TAKING LESS MONEY.

TENNESSEE FOR CLEVELAND. General Jere Baxter, Jr., of Tennessee, is at the Fifth-Avenue Hotel. In his opinion Grover Cleveland will have the delegation from Tennessee next year. He thought Mr. Cleveland would be the strongest Democrat in Cleveland would be the strongest Democration. The Cleveland would be the strongest Democrat in the race for the presidential nomination. "The South will," he says, 'remain solid for the Democratic party beyond a doubt. All the rumors to this effect that the South is permeated with Democrats who believe in protection only vote the ticket on account of the race question are the offspring of a fertile but inaccurate mind. The people in the South will continue to vote the Democratic ticket."

A FASTER EXHAUSTED. G. H. Stratton, the faster, was to-day removed to Bellevue Hospital, suffering from exhaustion. Stratton was ordered by his doctors to give up his fast yesterday, the forty-second day. He had grown so weak and feverish it was deemed unsafe to permit him to try to break the forty-five-day record. REAR-ADMIRAL COOPER DEAD.

Rear-Admiral George H. Cooper, United States navy, retired, died after a brief illness of heart failure at his home, in Brooklyn, today. Deceased was in his seventy-first year. He had been a resident of Brooklyn since

Rear-Admiral Cooper was born in Fort Diamond, N. Y., July 27, 1821. He entered the service as a midshipman August 14, 1837. He received his commission as captain in De-

He received his commission as captain in December, 1867, and was stationed at the Norfolk navy-yard. In June, 1874, he was made commodore. He retired in 1884.

The United States gunboat Concord left to-day for St. Thomas, West Indies. She will there join the Philadelphia. It is surmised that at that point, if the Chilian difficulties take on a threatening aspect, the Concord will be ordered to proceed to Chili. THE HORSE SHOW.

At the horse show to-day there were six and promotes the disease, and At the horse show to-day there were six entries in class 23 for yearling stallions to be shown in hand. Henry Fairfax was represented by Aidie, a bay by Matchless of Londesboro, which took the second prize. He has sold the first prize hackney stallion. Matchless, of Londesboro, to Dr. W. Seward Webb for $15,000.

METROPOLITAN MATTERS.

Interesting Happenings in and About New York Yesterday.

The statement that the Chesapeake and Ohio is to incorporate a part of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley road was confirmed yesterday, but negotiations have not been completed.

The part of the Newport News system to be acquired is the Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy read, 132miles from Huntington, W. Va., to Lexington, Ky., the Chesapeake and Ohio advancing 5 per cent. bonds.

Mr. C. P. Huntington, president of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley road, said vesterday when questioned as to the sale of the Elizabethtown branch:

"It has been known for some time past

of the Elizabethtown branch:

"It has been known for some time past that the road is for sale. In fact, it is my intention to dispose of all the interest I have in railroad property east of the Mississppi river as soon as I can. The ship-yard at Newport News I shall keep and I intend to build more steamships right off."

It is understood that Mr. Huntington is to build five new steamers for the Morgan line.

JOHN JACOB ASTOR VI. There was not mud enough in the streets resterday nor damp enough in the streets yesterday nor damp enough in the air to prevent a fashionable pilgrimage to the Astor mansion and the rendering of homage to New York's swellest baby. John Jacob Astor VI., who weight ten pounds and will inherit $150. 000,000 if he escapes, as he may not, in spite of his money, whooping-cough, diphtheria and other childish ills.

"However, everything was lovely yesterday, and "mother and child were doing as well as could be expected."

So spoke Dr. Lusk, of No. 47 east Thirty-fourth street, who danced attendance all day long at the splendid mansion No. 374 Fifth avenue, where perhaps the richest baby in America, rosy, chubby and indifferent to its financial greatness, lay and squalled itself black in the face like the child of the veriest wanger. LORD & TAYLOR'S CUTTER DEAD.

George C. Jones, clothing cutter for Lord & Taylor's Broadway and Twentieth street house, shot himself through the head some time on Sunday night in his lodging at 17 west Thirtieth street. He was suffering from nervous prostration, from headsches due to kidney troubles and from grief at the loss of his mother, who died last spring. He complained on Saturday that his head was "in a whirl," and he seemed to despair of finishing whirl," and he seemed to despair of finishing the work which had accumulated upon his department.

That evening he went to the theatre with a fellow employe named Hatfield. They met the next day and attended St. Thomas church in the afternoon. In the evening they went to Koster & Bial's. Jones seemed unusually

His suicide became known to his employers when a lady customer came to be fitted, and a messenger boy named "Willie" was sent to find Jones. The people in the lodging-house told the lad to go up to Jones' room. The door being locked, the persevering boy crawled through the transom and found the man dead by his own hand.

OFF TO JOIN THE PHILADELPHIA.

The United States steamship Concord left the navy-yard yesterday under orders to join the flagship Philadelphia at St. Thomas W. I. Since leaving the White Squairon in September last the Concord has been undergoing repairs at the navy-yard. New connecting-rods for the circulating pumps of the main engines have been fitted, and a new bronze quadrant for the steering-gear has replaced the steel one broken while coming out of the wooden dry-dock last month. BUFFALO, ROCHESTER AND PITTSBURG MEETING.

The stockholders of the Buffalo, Rochester The stockholders of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad met yesterday afternoon at No. 36 Wall street and re-elected the old directory of the road, W. Emlen Roosevelt being chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his brother, Alfred Roosevelt. The directors will meet to morrow at 2 o clock P. M. to elect officers. The annual report showed the construction of the contraction of the contract the sanual report showed the gross earnings for the year to have been $2,542,152,22 an in-crease of 28.42 per cent, over the previous year. The operating expenses were $1,780, 323,38, an increase of 37.29 per cent. The net earnings for the year were $751,834,84, an in-crease of 11,29 per cent.

MANSLAUGHTERER, THE JURY SAY, John D. Neese, accused of murdering his wife, Mary, by striking her upon the head with a brick at their rooms, at 161 east One Hundred and Twelfth street, on January 1 th. was convicted yesterday in the general sessions of manuscripter in the first degree, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court. Under the conviction he may get twenty Neese says that he is the only son of the Rev. Dr. Abraham Neese, of Columbia, Va., formerly pastor of the First Methodist Epis-copal church of Columbia. SHE SIGNED AWAY $54,000.

When the suit of Myer Edelmuth for absolute divorce was tried in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn about a year ago it was shown that Mrs. Edelmuth had signed a paper transferring her interest in $54,000 worth of property to her husband and agreeing to live away from him on condition that he would pay her $12 a week. The suit resulted in favor of Mrs. Edelmuth, and her subsequent suit to set aside the transfer of her interest in the property is now on trial before Justice Bartlett in the Supreme Court. She says she had no distinct knowledge of what she was doing when she made the transfer.

COTTON BROKERS ASE NEW RIGHTS, The managers of the Cotton Exchange considered yesterday the matter of allowing members who hold more than one membership in their own name to issue for each additional membership so held a card giving the privileges of the floor to one person by name. This plan was finally adopted and its passage recommended by the board. The proposed change will be posted on the bulletin board and on November 30th will be voted upon by the members at large. upon by the members at large.

BLAVIN ENOURS OUT PARER. "Jack." a brother of Frank P. Slavin, the big Australian pugilist, made his debut before a metropolitan andience in a bout with Frank Faber, of Philadelphia, at Miner's Theatre last night. Slavin rushed his man at the call of time and landed blow after blow on I aber's face and body. After fighting one minute Slavin got home a terrific right hand swing on the Philadelphian's neck, knocking him down and out.
